City of St. George Launches It's Youth City Council Program

November 4, 2010 – The City of St. George Leisure Services Department hosted a Pizza & Pool Party at the Sand Hollow Aquatic Center to celebrate the launching of their Youth City Council Program.

Students from Snow Canyon High School, Dixie High School, Desert Hills High School and Dixie Middle School were represented at the function. Students were addressed by Shareene Strem, a special education teacher at Snow Canyon High School, Steve Bingham and Tammy Houchen, from the St. George Rec Center and Gloria Shakespeare, member of the St. George City Council. Students were encouraged to apply for the position and were provided materials regarding the program and how it works.

The St. George Youth City Council is open to all high school age students, grades 9 through 12, who meet the eligibility requirements. For more information on St. George Youth City Council, visit www.sgcity.org/ycc or email ycc@sgcity.org.
