ST. GEORGE, UTAH 84790

CEMETERY: (435) 627-4728
The St. George City cremation garden offers an alternative to traditional burial. The cremation garden is a carefully landscaped garden reserved for the cremains of loved ones, and offers a beautiful place for remembrance.

The garden is designed with water features and art work throughout. Seasonal plantings of annual flowers add to the reverent feel. Benches allow for reflection and prayer. The garden changes throughout the year with floral interest in all four seasons.

St. George, UT 84770
Phone: (435) 627-4728
Office hours: 8am - 5pm Monday - Friday

Special Events: All special events must be coordinated through the Cemetery Sexton.

Burial Rights and Payment:
No cremains shall be received at the cremation garden unless payment has been received. In addition, remains from out-of-state shall be accompanied by a transit permit. Payment of cremation garden fees shall be made to the licensed mortuary by submitting the required permits, unless the burial charges have been paid in advance to the Cemetery Sexton.

Funeral Service Hours:
No service will be allowed in the garden on Sunday or on any of the holidays officially observed by the City of St. George. On all days, funeral services will be allowed between the hours of 10:00 am and 4:00 pm. All services must be arranged through the sexton forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the time set and if there is an intervening holiday or Sunday, arrangement must be made seventy-two (72) hours in advance. Any exception shall be by the approval of City Council only and will result in the payment of addi-

Memorial Placement
Semi-permanent memorials (trees, shrubs, etc.) can be suggested and planted with the sexton’s approval.
