

St. George Youth City Council FAQ

Is there an age requirement to participate in the YCC?	Yes, Students must be between 14 and 18 years of age.
Must students be enrolled in a middle or high school?	Yes, students must be enrolled in middle or high school.
Do students have to live in St. George?	Yes, students must live within the City of St. George.
Is there a GPA requirement?	Yes, students must have and maintain at least a 3.5 GPA.
Are there any fees to join the YCC?	No, there is no fee to join the YCC.
What is the Time Commitment required to be on the council?	Members must attend 80% of the weekly meetings and the bi-weekly meetings held during the summer before the school year starts. Meetings usually last between 1 to 1 ½ hours. Prior notification should be given to the recorder if a student needs to be absent. Extended absences may be excused under special circumstances. There are other time commitments to fulfill service projects or plan projects. These are scheduled by project supervisors or committee chairs.
What types of community service does the Council do?	The YCC plans and executes activities in the community such as food drives, Christmas activities, community dances, and activities which collect money for worthy causes. It also participates in St. George City Council meetings at times to report on its activities as well as to understand the workings of the City Council. The YCC also plans recreational activities for itself to build teamwork and friendships.
What opportunities are available in the Youth City Council?	Every year, the Youth City Council selects its officers, allowing members to be responsible for a specific portfolio. Any member of the Council is also eligible to be a project manager for any activity the Council participates in. Project managers will lead a committee, then direct the Council at the time of the project.